Ponca City FUMC's "Stitches Through Time"

By Marlys Cervantes

First United Methodist Church began their observance of 130 years of service to the Ponca City community by hosting a "Stitches Through Time" quilt show honoring works from 1893-2023. There were quilts brought from Ponca City, Newkirk, Blackwell, Tonkawa, as well as Texas and Colorado. They were mostly from individuals but also from groups like other church groups who had made quilts together.

Over a hundred visitors enjoyed viewing the more than 180 quilts brought by 38 people in the community for the event. Each quilt had a card which told its "story", and there were many stories to be told.

Both the ages of the quilts and their types and the immense type of work put into each were diverse in nature. According to coordinator of the event, Mary Lou Loret, who worked with the 130th Anniversary Committee of the church, there were "quilts that were hand and machine embroidered, appliqued, t-shirt quilts, counted cross stitch, Quilts of Valor, patterns from Kansas City Star newspaper popular in the 1930s to modern designs and colors."

Loret also mentioned that one unique quilt was woven on a hand loom from the fleece of a sheep herder, while another family quilt had four generations work on the same quilt. The diversity of the selections shown was beautiful and a wonderful representation of the strong and beautiful stories quilts can tell.

FUMC Ponca City has many stories to tell itself. The Church was the first in Ponca City and was established with the Land Run. Services first began in homes and then moved to a small, frame building before moving to larger ones as it grew. The present brick building located on the corner of 6th Street and Central Avenue was built for the church in the 1920s and has been filled with stories ever since.

Suzi Lenhart, Chair of the 130th Anniversary Committee, and the church invite you to join them at their upcoming weekend celebration. On Saturday, October 21st at Noon, we will have a potluck picnic with games, pioneer Methodist impersonators, music and more. It will be a wonderful birthday celebration for the Church. You can RSVP for the picnic by calling the church at 580-762-1681.

On Sunday, October 22nd, the celebration will include several past congregants and pastors to join us for the 10am Worship service. Rev. J.D. Ward will preach, Rev. Tom Howard will sing the Lord's Prayer, and Rev. Tari Carbaugh will present our children's moment.

Pastor Leon Veazey says, "I am so excited to have the privilege of celebrating 130 years with this wonderful church family and so many people who have served and worshiped here before me!" Join us and many past members as we celebrate 130 years of service to this community and focus on the future.

CHARGE CONFERENCE REPORTS: Every year prior to charge conference, various departments submit their yearly reports to the church. For the next several weeks, their reports will be attached for your reading pleasure. The first week features the report from youth and children. In the next weeks we will feature reports from Angel Academy, Scouts and United Women in Faith.

YOUTH AND CHILDREN'S

YOUTH REPORT: 6TH-12TH GRADE.

YOUTH REPORT.

The First United Methodist Youth is our ministry aimed at our youth in the community between the ages of 6th-12th grade. We are slowly growing our youth group. We recently joined with the youth at First Presbyterian Church and played capture the flag at Maryland Mansion on Wednesday, September 20, 2023. The youth enjoy a time of eating and talking with one another, a bible study on the Gospels and reflection questions, games centered around our bible study, and an arts and craft centered around our bible study lesson. We have actively sought to engage in the youth within our community: In the month of September, the United Women of Faith provided free bags of sandwiches to the children at East Middle School and we provided pizza for the football team at Ponca City Senior High School.

CHILDREN'S REPORT
